

Indiana currently has a wonderful "no call" law to protect citizens from unwanted telephone calls. I understand that banks are petitioning to over throw this law. I am not in favor of this. I am enjoying my privacy and not having to answer unwanted or unsolicited telephone calls at all times of the day.